Dear Westy:

Thank you for your letter of 18 March regarding our interest in USMA graduates who are physically disqualified for commission. I am glad to know that the Class of 1963 has enjoyed such good health but sorry that we cannot expect any candidates from that group.

I appreciate your cooperation in this matter. Our recruitment of young men of this caliber is a continuing program and we will be glad to know of any candidates from later classes.

Faithfully yours,

Marshall S. Carter

Lieutenant General Marshall S. Carter
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Pat:

This is in reply to your letter of 22 February concerning opportunities available within the Central Intelligence Agency which might have strong appeal to USMA graduates who are physically disqualified for commission.

We are, of course, most anxious to assist graduates in this category and have made continuing efforts in the past to obtain for them retroactive or late commissions where possible or to arrange gainful employment with governmental agencies or civilian firms.

As of this time there are no known members of the Class of 1963 physically disqualified for commission. All have successfully completed the physical examination administered at the end of 1962.

We are confident that the opportunities and the challenges presented by a career with the Central Intelligence Agency would relate closely to the interests and the qualifications of graduates of West Point. This opportunity will be made known to those graduates who fail to be commissioned for reasons beyond their control.

Your interest is deeply appreciated.
